Life is composed of many seasons—not just the meteorological ones, but also the physical, emotional, and spiritual ones we journey through on the path of life. In Every Season: 101 Devotionals for the Journey, Pastor Alvin Frank takes readers through a variety of Old and New Testament Scriptures that align not only with annual seasons but also with the expected (and unexpected) seasons of our lives; by focusing on themes such as love, salvation and the cross, redemption, and transformation. He encourages readers to navigate each season with hope and trust in the God who loves and cares intimately for them.

In Every Season meets readers where they are on their personal spiritual journeys, and the insights and reflections contained within its pages will help them take the next step closer to God. This inspirational devotional will be a valuable companion in times of prayer and in the study of Scripture.

The fifth of nine siblings, Alvin spent his childhood in Trinidad and Tobago. He later immigrated to Canada where he studied Engineering at TMU (formerly Ryerson University). Following a career in Engineering at one of Ontario's largest power generating companies, he took early retirement and enrolled at Tyndale University/Seminary where he gained his Master of Divinity degree. For seventeen years, Alvin served as the Discipleship & Care Pastor at the Stone Church in Toronto, affiliated with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada.

The many experiences gained in Bible teaching, in caring for the needs of the congregation, in counselling and walking with people through the difficult seasons of life, inspired and led him to write In Every Season, his first published book.

Alvin Frank lives in Mississauga, Ontario with his wife, Glenda. Together they have two daughters, Karen and Cathy.
